

is IT

a Profession?

Adam Thilthorpe, BCS Director for Professionalism

Thursday 21st January 2010 - 7:30pm

Oxford e-Research Centre, 6 Keble Road, Oxford, OX1 3QG

Adam makes the case that IT has come of age.

An alternative view is that IT is a 'trade' and does not have the professional status of the law or accountancy.

Come along, join in the debate.

Hear what the industry thinks about this issue and what is being done to support the profession.

The event is free.

Members and non-members are very welcome.

Tea and coffee is served from 7:00pm.
